

Studio Policy 2020-2021

This studio policy must be read, signed and returned to be enrolled for piano lessons with Dr. Park

What to expect at lessons:

Lessons will be held once a week remotely. Lessons are tailored to each student's age and ability and may include music theory, technique, sight-reading, recital piece preparation, and other areas as needed. Any lessons cancelled by the teacher will be refunded or a make-up lesson will be provided.

Student Expectations:

- · Arrive on time with all music books and materials needed for the lesson. Be sure to clip fingernails short.
- · Complete all assignments of the week and fill out the daily practice log. Please note: The quality and consistency of practice is more important than the quantity, however, I expect younger students to be practicing around half an hour daily and older students an hour or more daily.
- · Participate in studio activities including recitals and attend lessons consistently.

Parent Expectations:

- · Keep an open line of communication with the teacher about the student's progress
- · Notify the teacher of any situations that may affect their child's practicing or lessons (for example, is the student struggling in school or having a bad day? Does the student have any special needs I should be aware of?)
- · Help the student to set aside dedicated practice time and create an environment conducive to practicing (Be aware of distractions like the TV or other siblings!)
- · Parents of older students are encouraged to periodically sit in lessons or bring a video/recorder to listen to their child's lesson to see what we are working on. Parents of students age 6 and under should be present for every lesson.
- · Supervise home practice sessions in a constructive and encouraging manner.
- · Please arrive and pick up students on time. There is no make-up time for late arrival.

Also, please give as much notice as possible for lessons that will be missed. Except for emergencies, if no advance notice is given for missing a lesson, you will be charged for it. The best way to contact me in these situations is via text message at 425-246-1866, especially if I am in lesson with another student and cannot answer the phone.

- · Maintain the condition of the piano at home have the piano tuned twice a year.
- · Know that every student at one point will face frustration with piano. Please be ready to provide encouragement as they develop the discipline to practice diligently and overcome hurdles in learning.
